

Tail End

Tail End is an all in one tool to where an entire service pipeline could be inspected for flaws that could be leading to tail latencies. Once the pipeline is inspected, Tail End suggests optimizations that could improve the performance of the service components and reduce tail latencies.

Background Processes

Interrupt Processing

NUMA effects

Non-FIFO Scheduling

Power Saving

